

Mahlberg, Brandt, Gilbert, Thompson & Wimsatt

Thomas C. Wimsatt has become a named member of the law firm of Mahlberg, Brandt, Gilbert, Thompson & Wimsatt. The firm is located in The Lawyers Building, 715 Court Street, Saginaw, Michigan. The firm represents individuals, corporations, nonprofit entities and municipalities. Mr. Wimsatt joined the firm in 2006.

Mr. Wimsatt has actively represented clients in all phases of trial and appellate work for 25 years. He has presented cases to state and federal courts and administrative agencies, including the Michigan Supreme court, the Michigan Court of Appeals, and the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. Wimsatt received his master's degree from Johns Hopkins University and received his law degree from Thomas M. Cooley Law School. Thereafter, he served as a law clerk for Chief Justice John Fitzgerald of the Michigan Supreme Court for two years. Upon Justice Fitzgerald's retirement, he stayed on for an additional year and became Justice James Brickley's first law clerk. Mr. Wimsatt's practice areas include employment law, insurance defense, professional negligence and Social Security disability.